YOUR JOURNEY STARTS TODAY

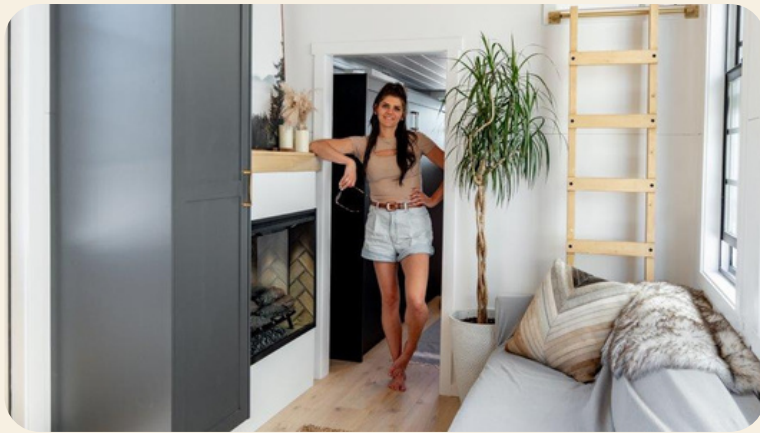

TEACUPTM

A LITTLE PIECE OF AWESOME

Planning & Development // Construct & Build // Possession & Warranty

ABOUT US:

Our Why:

Teacup's cultural foundation is set and built on the concept of enjoying everything life has to offer and living, feeling, and EXPERIENCING all of it to it's fullest.

This CORE VALUE of EXPERIENCE is the root of all that we do.

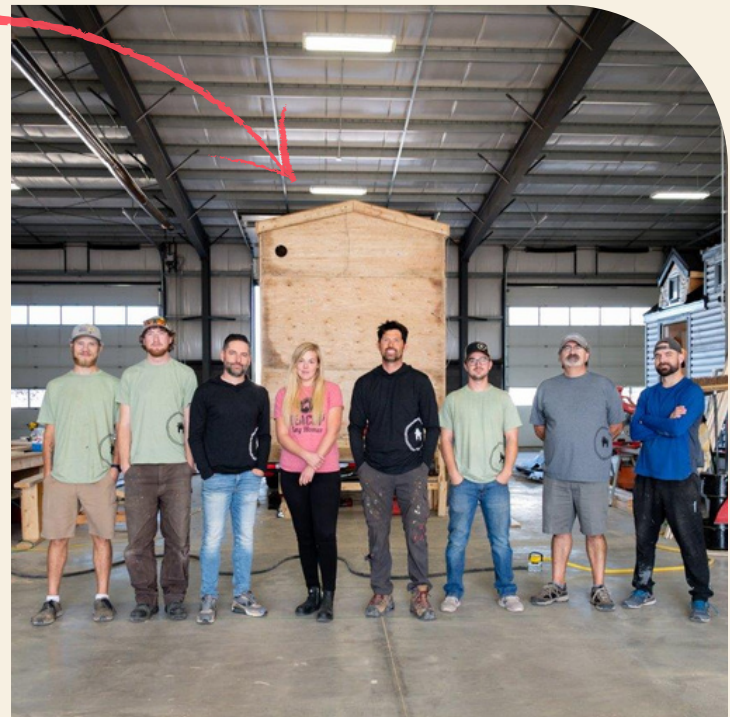

~Which is why we built our entire company around how our clients feel, before, during and after we build for them.~

When Teacup began, in 2016, it was a HUGE leap of faith and a giant life changing event for me, Jen. It was a moment in time where I met a fork in the road and took off toward a destination that was new, exiting and scary as hell.

We learned to apply this feeling of scared & excited to our Teacup Client Journey. We use it daily when our team works with our clients; and it just keeps getting better!

The truth is, our core values & beliefs don't matter nearly as much as yours, dear reader. We share them with you here today so you can decide if they align with yours.

So grab a coffee, tea, beer, water... whatever you prefer while you get started on your path.

The Teacup team.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING ABOUT US:

"I had 4 housing deals fall through prior. I was searching for options that would work for me after that and then I stumbled upon Teacup on the internet one day exploring my options. Teacup stuck with me the whole way through my journey and even got different building credentials to get the job done. The client experience has been pretty bang on. I like the social media aspect of it and how our stories get involved with the overall image of the company somewhat. I also like the communication that we do have. It's solid." ~Max Tagish Foundation Series ~ Ft. McMurray AB

I had looked at some second hand tiny homes on marketplace and choosing to go with Teacup Tiny Homes was an easy decision.. I had looked at several of their build outs on Youtube which reassured me I was choosing the right builder, one that builds for Alberta weather, especially winter plus good design and quality work, a perfect trio!

★★★★★

Lorraine - Alberta - Amelia

“

We looked at several builders but ultimately picked Teacup because we love the style and designs. The spaces are so beautiful and functional.

★★★★★

Steve & Maria- BC~ Ruby

I feel very supported by Shireen, and appreciate the information regarding process, upgrades and pricing that is available in the Teacup Academy. I would be incredibly overwhelmed if I had too many choices.

Jen always has time to answer questions....and I had lots! I never felt that I was being made to fit into an existing design 'mold'. She asked lots of questions and took the photos and videos of other homes that I showed her into account as we fleshed out the design.

Jen has a unique talent of translating my vision into reality and she does it with such joy. I feel supported and cared for. I know that when inevitable hiccups arise, she has solutions and options for me to consider.

Jen gets things done! I think that might be her super power.....or maybe it's her ability to always find a way to make things work. After all her most memorable saying is "Everything is figureoutable" ~ ADELINA ~ Serendipity - Calgary AB

"I just think the style of the builds, as well as the fact that you offer a 400 sq. ft. tiny, is what appealed to me. I also assumed that a Canadian-based company would have a better grasp on the requirements for a home in the subarctic region."

Katy. Ellie ~ Alaska

"My partner (Benjamin) had been extremely interested in tiny homes for a long time, and somewhere along the way he discovered 'Teacup tiny homes' and was obsessed. It took me a little longer to get into the tiny house mode, but one day I woke up and realized that this was the ultimate house for us. Once deciding to go tiny, there was no question on what company we were going to choose to build our future tiny! From the minute we saw all the different builds you had done in the past, we were sold!"

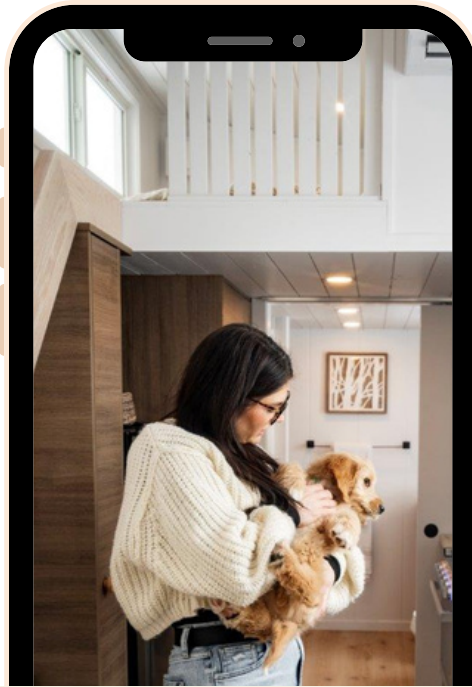

~Ben & Christina: Margo II ~ NELSON BC

"I loved how we would talk about our wants and needs and Jen and Ryan would literally start building it in their heads. They knew what we wanted more than we knew was even possible! The guidance with the colour choices was above and beyond as well. The whole process has been exciting."

Jess: Ruby Plan ~ Ontario
